House for investment in the heart of Brtonigla with a sea view

A house with a sea view in the center of Brtonigla is for sale. The house is an investment opportunity because it is located in the very center of Brtonigla and is very spacious and subject to internal changes.

It consists of a ground floor and a first floor, each of which has 150m2.

The concrete roof and quality brick walls are certainly something to pay attention to when choosing an investment property, and this is just one of the qualities that adorn this rare opportunity on the market.
